In re:

PG&E CORPORATION,

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY,

Debtors.

Case No. 19-30088
Chapter 11
(Lead Case)

MOTION TO ALLOW LATE FILING OF PROOF OF CLAIM; DECLARATION OF DAN BEACH

Date: December 15, 2020

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Place: United States Bankruptcy Court
Courtroom 17, 16th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94102

1 TO THE HONORABLE DENNIS MONTALI, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
2 JUDGE, THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND ALL INTERESTED
3 PARTIES:

4
5 Dan Beach (“Movant”) respectfully files this motion to allow late filing of proof of 6 claim (“Motion”) against the Chapter 11 Bankruptcy of PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas
7 and Electric Company. In support of the Motion, the Creditor respectfully represents as follows:

8 1. Summary of Argument

9 A creditor that was not scheduled and did not receive notice of a claims bar date may file a
10 claim and have it deemed timely. In this case, Dan Beach was neither scheduled nor received
11 notice of the bar date set in PG&E and Pacific Gas and Electric Company’s bankruptcy. The 12 Creditor has been diligently pursuing all rights and should not be barred from filing a timely
13 claim against PG&E and Pacific and Gas Electric Company’s bankruptcy. Furthermore,
14 because there is no danger of prejudice to the Debtors, the length of the delay and its potential
15 impact on judicial proceedings is minimal, the reason for the delay is justifiable, and because
16 the movant acted in good faith, a finding of excusable neglect is warranted and the Motion
17 should be granted to allow the claim deemed timely.

18 2. Factual Background

19 A. Movant’s Claims Arising From The Camp Fire¹

20 Dan Beach is the son of Stanley Beach. Stanley Beach owned the property at 1252
21 Tahoe Way, Paradise, CA 95969 (“the property”). Stanley Beach died on March 29, 2018 at 22 which time his estate entered probate (“the estate”). Dan Beach struggled with grief due to his 23 father’s passing and found it difficult to manage the proceedings related to the distribution of 24 his father’s estate. On November 8, 2018, while the estate was in probate, the property was 25 destroyed by the Camp Fire. By October 1, 2019, the executor of the estate had distributed
26 the assets, and Dan Beach, along with his siblings, Susie Mitchell and Steve Beach, became
27 title owners of the property. Furthermore, Dan did not receive a letter in the mail from PG&E

28 ¹ See, Declaration of Dan Beach ¶¶4-11

1 and Pacific Gas and Electric Company stating that he had only 21 days to file a proof of claim,
2 nor did Dan otherwise contemplate that he had a right to file a claim before the filing deadline.

3 B. The PG&E and Pacific Gas and Electric Company Chapter 11 Case

4 On January 29, 2019, PG&E and Pacific Gas and Electric Company filed a voluntary
5 petition under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (“Bankruptcy Case”). See
6 Court’s PACER Docket for Case No. 19-30088 as of June 19, 2020. PG&E’s chapter 11
7 filings were necessitated by a confluence of factors resulting from catastrophic fires that
8 occurred in Northern California prior to the Petition Date, and PG&E’s potential liabilities
9 arising therefrom.

10 The deadline for filing all proofs of claim in respect of any prepetition claim
11 including all claims of Fire Claimants and for the avoidance of doubt, all secured claims and 12 priority claims, against either of the Debtors was October 21, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. (the "General
13 Bar Date"). However, this deadline was extended to December 31, 2019 (the “Extended Bar
14 Date”) solely for the benefit of any non-governmental Fire Claimants who did not file a proof
15 of claim by the General Bar Date. (See, Dk. No. 4672.)

16 3. Legal Argument

17 A. Application of The Pioneer Factors Justify a Finding of Excusable Neglect

18 In a Chapter 11 case, the time to file a proof of claim may be extended under certain 19 circumstances. Fed. R. Bank. Pro. 3003(c)(3). The bankruptcy court has “broad equitable 20 powers” in a Chapter 11 case with respect to the timing requirement for proofs of claim.
21 Pioneer Inventory Services v. Brunswick Associates Limited Partnership, 507 U.S. 380, 389
22 (1993). Even a creditor that did in fact receive notice may file a proof of claim notwithstanding
23 the expiration of a claims bar date in a Chapter 11 case upon a showing of “excusable neglect.”
24 Id. at 394–95 (“Had respondents here been prevented from complying with the bar date by an
25 act of God or some other circumstance beyond their control, the Bankruptcy Court plainly
26 would have been permitted to find ‘excusable neglect’ [under FRBP 9006].”). In considering 27 whether a creditor’s failure was the product of “excusable neglect,” the court should take 28 “account of all relevant circumstances surrounding the party’s omission,” including

1 “the danger of prejudice to the debtor, the length of the delay and its potential impact on
2 judicial proceedings, the reason for the delay, including whether it was within the reasonable
3 control of the movant, and whether the movant acted in good faith.” Id. at 395.

4 In this case, application of all four Pioneer factors weigh in favor of the Movant. First,
5 there is no danger of prejudice as only the parties involved in the claim have changed while the 6 substantive claim remains constant. Prior to the distribution of assets by October 1, 2019, the 7 estate held the claim arising from the destruction of the property by the Camp Fire. Dan Beach
8 only joins this case after the executor of the estate distributed title to the property to Dan Beach,
9 his brother Steve Beach, and his sister Susie Beach. Therefore, granting Dan Beach’s motion
10 will not substantially affect the debtor’s legal rights. Furthermore, Debtors’ estates are solvent,
11 and all creditors stand to be paid. See, e.g., In re Best Payphones, Inc., 523 B.R. 54, 75-6
12 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015) and In re Sheehan Mem’l Hosp., 507 B.R. 802, 803 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y.
13 2014) (where the chapter 11 estate is solvent, “the proper remedy for a late filing is not the 14 expungement of a claim, but its allowance as a tardily filed claim only.).

15 Secondly, the length of the delay is reasonable as the Subject Proof of Claim was filed
16 immediately upon receiving all the necessary information. See Bateman v. US Postal Service, 17 231 F. 3d 1220, 1225 (9th Cir. 2000) (holding that a delay of “a little more than one month... was 18 still not long enough to justify denying relief.”).

19 Third, the Movant has a compelling reason for the delay. Dan Beach only finds himself in 20 this situation due to the death of his father. Dan was understandably preoccupied with his 21 father’s estate and neglected to consider how the death of a loved one would change his right to 22 file a claim in this matter. See Id. (holding that delays from mere “negligence and 23 carelessness” do not preclude a finding of excusable neglect.).

24 Finally, Movant acted in good faith. Dan Beach did not contemplate that he had the 25 right to file a claim before the filing deadline. Furthermore, he did not receive notice of his 26 right to file a claim that would lead him to consider whether he should pursue a claim in this
27 action. Upon learning of the implications of his situation, the Movant immediately brings this 28 motion before the court. See, Ahanchian v. Xenon Pictures, Inc., 624 F. 3d 1253, 1262 (9th Cir.

2000) (holding that a party demonstrates good faith by “promptly seeking extensions of time where necessary”).

B. Creditors Were Not Given Notice of The Claims Bar Date

[D]ue process demands that a creditor in a Chapter 11 case receive reasonable notice of a claims bar date before it is effective against the creditor.” Monster Content, LLC v. Homes.com, Inc., 331 B.R. 438, 442 (N.D. Cal. 2005). The Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure specify that “the clerk, or some other person as the court may direct, shall give the debtor, the trustee, all creditors and indenture trustees at least 21 days’ notice by mail of... the time fixed for filing proofs of claims pursuant to Rule 3003(c).” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(a). Indeed, the Ninth Circuit has held that “the creditor who is not given notice, even if he has actual knowledge of the reorganization proceedings, does not have a duty to investigate and inject himself into the proceedings.” In re Maya, 78 F.3d 1395, 1399 (9th Cir. 1996). A late-filed proof of claim is allowable where a creditor had actual notice of the bankruptcy but, due to some external reason, failed to file a proof of claim or did not realize that she had to, before the bar date. See, e.g., ZiLOG, Inc. v. Corning (In re ZiLOG, Inc.), 450 F.3d 996, 1003–07 (9th Cir. 2006) (applying the Pioneer factors). Therefore, a creditor who does not receive 21 days’ notice of a claims bar date and does not otherwise contemplate that she is required to file a proof of claim, should be permitted to file a proof of claim after the bar date.

In this case, the Court should grant the Motion and allow the claimant to file a timely-claim because leading up to the claim’s deadline, Dan Beach did not receive notice from PG&E and Pacific Gas and Electric Company that the claims deadline was rapidly approaching. At the time of the General Bar Date, Stanley Beach’s estate was in probate and Dan Beach could not have filed a proof of claim as he had not yet acquired title to the property. Furthermore, when Dan did acquire title to the property, he did not contemplate that he had a claim separate from the claim made by his father’s estate which he could pursue on his own behalf. By the time that Dan did understand that he had a claim separate from the estate, the claim deadline had passed.

Considering that Dan Beach did not receive notice of the claim deadline, and that Dan was grieving from the death of his father while dealing with a complex probate process of his father's estate, a finding of excusable neglect should be permitted, and the Court should grant the motion.

4. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Creditor requests that (1) the Court enter an order allowing the Creditor to file a claim against PG&E and Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Chapter 11 Bankruptcy and have the proof of claim be deemed timely; and (2) for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances of this case.

Declaration of Dan Beach

I, Dan Beach, say and declare as follows:

1. I am an individual over 18 years of age and competent to make this Declaration.
2. I make this Declaration in support of this motion to allow late filing of proof of claim ("Motion"), filed by myself against the Chapter 11 Bankruptcy of PG&E and Pacific Gas and Electric Company.
3. I am informed and believe that facts set forth in this Declaration are true of my personal knowledge, and if called upon to do so I could and would competently testify to these facts.
4. My father, Stanley Beach, owned the property located at 1252 Tahoe Way, Paradise, CA 95969 ("the property").
5. On March 29, 2018, my father died. His estate later entered probate.
6. My father's death was emotional for me and I struggled with the grief of his passing.
7. I also struggled under the stress of handling my father's estate.
8. On November 8, 2018, the property was destroyed by the Camp Fire.
9. By October 1, 2019, the property was no longer in probate and I, along with my siblings Susie Mitchell and Steve Beach, had title to the property.
10. I did not know that I might have the right to file a claim before the filing deadline.
11. I did not receive a letter in the mail from PG&E and Pacific Gas Electric Company stating I only had 21 days left to file a proof of claim.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on November 18, 2020.

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form. Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
